

Posters presented on Tuesday 10th December

- Richard Roxburgh - Affiliation to the TREAT-NMD Alliance Network using an Agreed Minimum Dataset allows small registries and large registries to collaborate together
 - Poster Number 12
- Daniela Botiková - The Czech National Registry Myasthenia Gravis MyReg
 - Poster Number 10
- Jordi Diaz Manera - TREAT NMD- Using the power of the network to move Limb Girdle Muscular Dystrophies towards clinical trial readiness
 - Poster Number 15
- Rasha El Sherif - Burden of rare disorders in Africa and the role of patient registries
 - Poster Number 3
- Syed Feisal Syed Farooq - Utilization of Real-World Observational Data to Study the Safety and Effectiveness of Spinal Muscular Atrophy Treatments
 - Poster Number 27
- Josie Godfrey - Project HERCULES: international collaboration on value assessment
 - Poster Number 35
- Lucy Imber - The International GNE Myopathy Patient Registry
 - Poster Number 9
- Anna Lusakowska - Polish Registry of SMA Patients
 - Poster Number 14
- Tran Nguyen - Academic productivity from rare neuromuscular disease registries: A systematic review
 - Poster Number 2
- Miriam Rodrigues - Collaborative data collection by TREAT-NMD Registries to support post-marketing surveillance in Spinal Muscular Atrophy
 - Poster Number 13
- Nienke van de Velde - Towards clinical trial readiness and reduction of burden for Duchenne and Becker patients in the Netherlands. Two intertwined, standardized data collection projects: project 1 'the Dutch Dystrophinopathy database'
 - Poster Number 25